Dear Mr. Daniels:

We received the information concerning the newest changes and additions in Utah's mined land reclamation regulations which I had asked about. Your response was greatly appreciated as I was particularly interested in the new M-10 section concerning reclamation standards. If there are any other important developments in the near future, we would appreciate being advised. I will be looking forward to future contact with you.

Thanks again for the information.

Sincerely yours,

Alan D. Cox
